Welcome back!

UT Dallas Sustainability 101

We are so excited to have you back for the 2020-2021 school year! Whether you are on campus this semester in person or in spirit, we want to ensure that your semester is as green as possible. Here are some ways you can keep your semester eco-friendly. Welcome to Sustainability 101! Read more >

Environmental Justice

Did you know racism extends even to the environment? Environmental injustice or environmental racism can be seen when those that contribute less to pollution and/or climate change are more likely to be exposed to its effects. Read on to learn more about the environmental justice movement. Read more >

Campus Sustainability Month

AASHE Campus Sustainability Month

October is AASHE Campus Sustainability Month! This celebration engages and inspires campus to get involved in sustainability any way we can. The UT Dallas Office of Sustainability is proud to share with you some events our office is holding to commemorate the event and show our campus pride! Read more >

Watershed Warriors

Looking for a remote service opportunity? We've got you covered! Pick up campus litter to protect local wildlife and watershed. Submit your hours toward earning the Sustainability Service Honors! Register here >

Comet Cupboard

Since campus closed in March, the Comet Cupboard has executed over 9,200 emergency food and personal care distributions. Food and money donations are needed more now than ever. Donate here >

The Greenhouse

Here you can find updates to the UT Dallas Eco Rep blog!

Moving In: The Sustainable Way

Move-in this year also will look much different than past years where excited RA's greeted you with orange wheeling bins. Nonetheless, Paulina is providing some eco-friendly moving tips that you may use this semester or look back at in the future. Head to The Greenhouse!

Get Involved with Sustainability

As school starts up online and the world feels disconnected, getting involved with student organizations is more important than ever to make friends and make change. Head to The Greenhouse!

How to Plan a Sustainable Event

Sustainable event planning is a win for everyone. It's good for the earth, your budget, and your attendees will definitely appreciate the effort and being able to play their part. Head to The Greenhouse!
